Sparvet Blood Drive Today and Tomorrow

Donors, who contribute to tomorrow's drive, will automatically become members of the SJS "Blood Credit Club," which entitles them or any member of their families to draw blood without charge.

Sponsored by the Sparvets, campus veteran's organization, the drive will begin at 1 p.m. and end at 3 p.m. in the Student Union.

'Elves, Shoemaker' Plays to Capacity Week-end Audience

By BARBARA WHITE

Excited children crept to the edge of the stage to get a better look at "The Elves and the Shoemaker" which played to near capacity audiences four performances this week-end.

Adults and children alike were captivated by the antics of Kenneth Rugg, Barry Montilla and James Dunn as Gremlo, Widgeo and Finella, the three elves who came to earth from Elf land to help the shoemaker's family save their shop from a wicked landlady.

The Friday night audiences gave special applause to Montilla who filled the leading role of Widgeo, junior elf, who successfully completed his first assignment of helping three mortals.

Thus student production of "The Elves and the Shoemaker," an 18th century story based on a Grimm's fairy tale, was an enjoyable, smooth running performance and a credit to John Kerr, associate professor of drama and director.

The atmosphere of the shoemaker's shop was convincingly conveyed by picturesque scenery designed by Wendell Johnson.

Others in the cast were Celia Cross, the shoemaker's wife; Richard Wilson, the shoemaker; Barbara Bridges, Karen; Bonita Camelia, Heckler; Marilyn Clift, Dame Margery; Jean Parlette, Ursula; Jean Marsh, Joan; Carolyn Call, Rhoda; Gail Anderson, Meg; and Celeste McAdam, Tabitha.

Bernice Prisk was in charge of costumes and Harrison McCreath was technical director.

Deadline on Drops

The last day that students may drop classes is Friday, March 9, according to an announcement by the Dean of Instruction Office.

Change of program cards, on which courses have been dropped, must be filed with the Registrar's Office by the deadline.

Prospective donors must pick up pledge cards in the Outer Quad between 9:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. today and tomorrow. This card is a promissory note on which the recipient pledges one pint of blood. A maximum of one pint per person may be donated.

A time lapse of 90 days between donations is required and donors must be at least 18 years of age. Anyone under 21 will be required to have a waiver signed by their parents or legal guardians.

Orange juice will be served before the donation and coffee and donuts afterward. It is advisable not to eat heavy foods three to four hours before the donations.

According to Maureen Larrigan, publicity chairman for the drive, the only pain involved is in pricking the finger for a test drop. Miss Larrigan, who has given blood three times, assures new donors that she can absolutely vouch "for its being completely painless."

SJS has held the title for contributing the most blood while in competition with other colleges and universities in California since 1948. The San Jose Elks Club has donated the Selah Pereira Memorial Trophy to go to the college or university with the most donations. It has never left the SJS campus.

Races Announced By SJS Ski Club

Members of the Ski Club will compete next weekend, March 3 and 4, in the annual club races.

Men's races will be divided into four classes; beginner, intermediate novice and advance. Women will vie in beginner, intermediate and advance classes.

An open race will be held with any club racer eligible. Awards for the races will be statuettes, first place; cups, second; belt buckles, third.

The club will stay at Hoyfjellet Lodge and the deadline for signing up is Tuesday night at the club meeting. The Student Affairs Business Office, Room 16 is now receiving money for the trip.

A bus will leave from the Student Union Friday evening at 6 o'clock for those needing transportation.

JACK KING (far left) receives his pledge card, on which he has promised to donate one pint of blood to tomorrow's drive. Helping him are; (left to right) Jim Dobie, Joe Rupp, and Don Campbell. Sponsored by the Sparvets, campus veteran's organization, the blood drive will take place in the Student Union between 1 and 5 p.m. Those wishing to donate must pick up a pledge card in the Outer Quad 9:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. today and tomorrow.

Evening Enrollment Increases; Up 44

Evening enrollment at San Jose State has increased over last semester despite a decrease in total enrollment at the college. As of yesterday 3,901 students had enrolled in the extended day classes according to Coordinator of Evening Programs, Dr. Arthur H. Price. This is an increase of 44 students.

Part time or limited students make up the biggest gain in evening enrollment and the 1340 registered students represent a gain of more than 400 limited students taking night courses.

This offsets a decrease in the number of full time students taking classes after 4:20 p.m.

Education classes appear to be the most popular at night, with a total of 715 students enrolled. Next department in number of students is Business with 636, and in third place, Social Science with 584.

One hundred fourteen students are taking night classes in Engineering.

The latter figure points up a recent statement by President Eisenhower and shows the small number of Engineering students at San Jose State compared to other departments.

Engineering graduates in all colleges are reported to be far below the amount needed by industry.

Must Wear White

"An all-white clad rooting section will be strictly enforced at tomorrow night's basketball game with St. Mary's College. It was announced today by Jim Cottrell, chairman of the Rally Committee."

Students not wearing white will not be admitted into the rooting section, and assigned ushers will enforce the procedure according to Cottrell.

Arab Dispute Not Issue Dulles Warns Congress

WASHINGTON, (UP) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles warned Congress Friday that injecting the Arab-Israeli dispute into U.S. politics would endanger peace in the Middle East and the future of Israel itself.

Dulles told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee he hopes that debate in the 1956 election campaign will not reinforce Arab belief that U.S. policy in the Middle East is "in the end dominated by domestic political considerations."

Students To Attend Journalism Talks In Long Beach

Fourteen SJS journalism students will leave Friday to attend a two day California Inter-collegiate Press Association conference in Long Beach. Dr. William E. Gould, professor of journalism, announced recently. Dr. Gould will accompany the group.

Writing contests, discussions on public relations, radio and TV, and speakers in the field of journalism will highlight the conference.

Long Beach's Lafayette Hotel will be the scene of most of the conference but some events will take place on the Long Beach State College campus.

Registration will be held from 12 noon to 7 p.m. Friday in the Lafayette Hotel and at 7:30 p.m. there will be a banquet. At 10 o'clock that evening a meeting for recommendations and nominations will be held.

The following day will start with a writing contest at 9:30 a.m. followed by discussions of public relations, radio, and TV. Lunch will be served at 11:30 o'clock. A roundtable discussion is scheduled for 1 p.m.

Those attending the conference are: Dr. and Mrs. Gould, Mary Pat Jameson, Barbara House, Eleanor Norris, Jerri Lee Hunt, Shelby Tree, Marlene Burgit, Harry Sage, Leo Chiantelli, Carl Shaver, Simon Steinrich, Ray Mason, Peter Meckel, Aaron Levy and Nancy Inglis.

Various campus publications will be on display and participants will find use for a portable typewriter and a camera.

Living Cost Drops During January

WASHINGTON — (UP) — The cost of living dropped slightly in January, the government reported recently.

The drop means a one-cent-an-hour cut in pay for about one million automobile and farm equipment workers whose wages are pegged to a cost of living scale. Their pay cut will take effect in the first pay period in March.

The slight January decline brought the cost of living to the lowest point since August.

Lower prices for food, household furnishings, clothing and automobiles accounted for the decline.

The consumer price index declined one-tenth of one per cent between mid-December and mid-January to 114.6 per cent of the average 1947-49 prices. This was three-tenths of one per cent higher than a year ago.

The peak level of the index was 115.4 per cent of the base period in October, 1953.

A Cappella Concert Scheduled Tonight In Concert Hall

The San Jose State A Cappella Choir under the direction of William Erlendson, professor of music, will present concert tonight and tomorrow night at 8:15 o'clock in the Concert Hall.

Included in the program will be the "Hymn to St. Cecilia," written by Britten, intended to help restore the custom of celebrating the feast of the patron saint of music.

"O Vos Omnes," another of the selections is from the work "The Lamentations of Jeremiah" by the contemporary Argentine composer, Alberto Ginastera. Ginastera, considered by many critics to be the most eminent of Argentine composers, has created music of tremendous vitality and primitive savagery which makes the selection fiercely exciting, according to Erlendson.

The songs by Ralph Vaughan Williams are written in a light style, and capture the spirit of 16th century poetry. The songs include "Sweet Day," "The Willow Song" and "O Mistress Mine."

The singers also will present four Slovak folk songs by Bartok who presents them in a contemporary style. "Gladstone Radiance" by Gretcheninoff, "Tu So-lus, qui Facis Mirabilia" by Josquin Des Pres, "Ascendit Deus" by Phillips, and "Ave Verum" by Mozart will round out the program.

Purkable Speaks At ISO Meeting

Mrs. Ruth Haines Purkable was guest speaker Friday at the International Students Organization meeting. Mrs. Purkable spoke to group about the various job possibilities for foreign students.

She is a committee member on friendly relations among foreign students, and is with the organization that sponsored the Athens, Ohio, Christmas trip for foreign students.

Mrs. C. E. Adams, special guest, was introduced at the meeting by Mrs. Purkable. Mrs. Adams is secretary of the committee on friendly relations among foreign students, and is one of the members who welcomed the exchange students at the port of entry.

The program included a talk on "Korea, Its Land and People," by Song Ok Sub and a talk by George Ikada on "Old Japan-Modern Japan." Color slides also were shown to the group.

Seniors To Hear Reports Today

Junior Class To Choose Band;
Sophs, Frosh Discuss March Mixer

Reports from committees on senior ball, senior day, senior booklet and graduation exercises head the agenda when the Senior Class meets in SD126 at 3:30 p.m. today.

A written report by the graduation exercises committee is scheduled for discussion by the class. The report concerns proposed changes in the program.

A cover for the senior booklet also will be discussed by the class. Decorations for the senior ball and a request for additional members for the senior day committee are scheduled for additional discussion.

Following the regular meeting, officers, and committee chairmen of the class will discuss the budget in a special meeting with James W. Jacobs, class adviser, and Bill Felles.

JUNIORS PLAN FROM

The final arrangements for the Spring Prom band will be made today at the Junior Class meeting. Voting for several bands under consideration was postponed at last week's meeting because records of all the bands had not been acquired.

The records will be played at this meeting for vote by the students.

Suggestions of money raising ideas also are on the agenda. A "penny carnival" is the only suggestion that has been offered thus far.

"All Juniors are urged to attend this important meeting," stated Joe Clark, president. The class meets every Monday at 3:30 p.m. in Room 24.

SOPHIS DISCUSS MIXER

Entertainment for the Frosh-Soph Mixer and discussion of a fund raising campaign will take place this afternoon at the Sophomore Class meeting, according to president Ted Terzakis. He also urged members to attend.

Sophomore Class will meet at 3:30 o'clock in Room 117. The class is scheduled to furnish entertainment for the mixer, March 16, and suggestions about possible means to raise funds for the rest of the semester will be included in discussion.

Campus Chest and the Junior Prom have reduced the sophomores' treasury by $400, it was announced recently in a treasurer's report.

FRESHMEN MEET

The Freshmen Class will meet this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock to continue progress on their "March Madness" dance, according to Bill Sturgeon, class president.

Last week five dance committees met and discussed rules and games, decorations, food, publicity, and entertainment.

Chuck Miller, a co-chairman for the dance stated that, "The committees are working well together and a great deal of progress has been done. Our main objective is to win back the plaque."

One of the main features of the meeting will be a short speech given by each class candidate.

Dr. Cherrington To Lecture Here Bruntz Announces

Dr. Ben M. Cherrington, director of the Institute of International Education for the Rocky Mountain area, will lecture here March 1, at 10:30 a.m., according to Dr. George Bruntz, social science professor.

The topic of Dr. Cherrington's lecture will be "The Responsibility of Power." He is visiting SJS during a countrywide lecture tour for the purpose of informing college students about student international relations.

Former Director of the Social Science Foundation and Professor of International Relations at the University of Denver, Dr. Cherrington has dealt with the idea of international exchange of student ideas since 1938.

At the invitation of Cordell Hull, then Secretary of State, he took over the task of organizing the work of a new Division of Cultural Relations in the Department of State.

Since that time he has dealt in various ways with the problems involved in international education. In May of 1940 he served as the U.S. delegate to the Eighth American Scientific Congress in Washington. He was the associate consultant to the U.S. delegation during the 1945 United Nations conference in San Francisco and in Feb. 1946 he was invited to be a consultant during the establishment of UNESCO.

From 1943 until 1946 he was Chancellor of the University of Denver during the absence of Chancellor Caleb F. Gates, Jr., who was serving in the armed forces.

Dr. Cherrington holds the following degrees: A.B., University of Nebraska, 1911; A.M., University of California, 1922; Ph.D., Columbia University, 1934; LL.D., University of Nebraska, 1946; and Doctor of Public Service, University of Denver, 1953.

Senate Leaders Shape Bipartisan Spending Bill

WASHINGTON — (UP) — Senate leaders of both parties joined recently in shaping legislation to put "realistic" limits on political campaign spending.

The proposal also would require that all campaign contributions be made public under a "very stringent" reporting system, grant a tax exemption up to $100 on political contributions and permit radio-TV networks to split free air time between "major" party candidates.

Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.), and Republican Leader William F. Knowland (Calif.), predicted it will be enacted in time to apply to next fall's presidential and congressional elections.

WAA Slates Award Dinner Wednesday

The Women's Athletic Association will hold its Seventh Annual Awards Banquet next Wednesday. The Old Plantation House, at San Antonio Road and El Camino Real in Los Altos, will be the setting for the affair.

Not only will the awards be given, but the installation of new officers and managers of the WAA executive council will be witnessed.

Guest speaker will be Major Dean M. Bressler, assistant professor of military science and tactics. Major Bressler will speak on his "Travels with the U.S. Navy."

The tickets will be on sale in the Women's Gym, at $2.25 until noon, Tuesday.

The menu consists of soup, salad, club steak, potatoes, vegetables, butter and rolls, dessert, coffee or milk.

All women are invited to attend, according to Mabel Frutozo, co-chairman of the publicity committee.

EDITORIAL

Here's Your Chance

Have you ever wondered just how the Student Council operates? If so, March 5 at 3:30 p.m. in Morris Dailey Auditorium is the date, time and place to satisfy your curiosity and become acquainted with your student body officers and their activities.

The open meeting is a part of the Student Council's plan to arouse more spirit at Sparta. The Council wants your ideas and suggestions, and as a student you should be quick to take advantage of this opportunity. Here's your chance to be seen and heard, and to make your opinions, criticisms and comments known.

Students usually are quick to criticize the operations of student government if the slightest mistakes are made, but when the opportunities arise, giving them a chance to comment before any action has been taken, they usually do not take advantage of them. Don't wait until the action is passed, but give your opinions beforehand.

The open meeting will include a question-answer period, a regular business meeting of the Council, explanation of by-laws and common practice and an introduction of student body officers.

Perhaps you don't think there is a need for such a meeting—maybe you have other ideas or suggestions for improvement of spirit, or maybe you think SJS has sufficient spirit. Whatever you think, speak up, and use this open meeting to advantage.

SJS Prof. Authors Economics Textbook

By THOMAS BRUFFY

Dr. William A. Koivisto, associate professor of economics, has written an economics textbook which will soon be published, it was announced today.

Dr. Koivisto is a comparatively new member of the San Jose faculty, joining the staff last September.

His book, which will be used as a text in courses such as Economics 1A and 1B, will be entitled "Principles and Problems of Modern Economics." Dr. Koivisto has written several articles for magazines and has another book in progress.

Prior to coming to San Jose State, Dr. Koivisto taught at Lake Forest College. Before that he was a research assistant at the University of Chicago, where he received his Ph.D. and M.A. degree, after receiving his B.A. at University of California in 1943. His book will stress problems of economic instability, inefficiency, inequality, and attempt to reconcile the conflicting economic goals.

WILL YOU HELP US?

To The Students:

The Student Council has taken action on the general apathy toward participation in student body activities, but we need your support. Here's how we're trying to stimulate student interest:

(1) By setting up a committee to organize four-way class meeting. This will take place within the next month. At this meeting students may direct questions to Student Council. Every person in the student body will be invited to attend.

(2) By providing the class meetings with more complete coverage and explanations of the committee posts open.

(3) By running feature stories in the SPARTAN DAILY pertaining to committee positions open. This will include the function of the committees and a description of the duties of the members.

(4) By writing letters to living groups announcing when and what positions are open and the functions of these positions.

(5) By contacting those persons who applied for committee positions in the past and urging them to participate.

Since this is only a start, now it is up to the students and the Student Council. We already have received letters from students who want to build spirit. The council invites your comments and ideas on the subject.

Please write a note to the Student Council in care of SPARTAN DAILY.

This apathy not only is evident in the number of persons who participate in student body activities, but also from the participation at athletic events, in class, and ASB elections.

Let's work together for a more united and spirited Sparta. Your Student Body Officers:

MYSTERY SPORT

Dear Thrust and Parry:

In the SPARTAN DAILY of Feb. 23, 1956, near the top right hand corner of page three, there was a story headlined, "K.A. Theta Chi Win First Round Games." This is followed by a lovely story, approximately 7 1/4 inches long, which reveals all sorts of interesting information as to who defeated whom, how many points were scored against this or that team's opponents, etc., etc. This was all very fascinating, though there was one minor detail which puzzled us—what sport was being played? One sentence states, "Theta Chi's one-two punch of Bob Silva and Dick Zimmerman proved to be too much for Delta Upsilon." Because of our meager knowledge of sports, we assumed this no doubt referred to boxing. "Don Hellmers was the big gun in Kappa Alpha's victory over Sigma Nu," led us to believe that perhaps a shooting duel or a rifle match was taking place. Then our bewildered minds thought of basketball as we read, "Hellmers dropped in 12 points..." However, later on we read, "Kappa Tau's scoring was well distributed with Tom Voight leading the pack with six points." Could this be a track meet?

Seriously, our point is this—not once throughout the entire story was there any mention of the sport being played!

(Editor's note: The sport mentioned was basketball.)

'Maid' Gives Beauty Tip

NEW YORK—(UP)—The 1956 Maid of Cotton has a three-part rule for beauty.

"Be natural, keep clean and stay happy," said Patricia Anne Cowden, 21, of Raleigh, N.C.

A slim beauty with curly brown hair and blue-green eyes, Miss Cowden wears little makeup for daytime occasions. Usually a dash of powder, a light lipstick, a touch of mascara and her naturally good complexion are enough.

"Save the glamour treatment for night," said Pat, in an interview before she began a six-months tour as the cotton industry's goodwill ambassador.

The next United States president is rapidly increasing in numbers. One speaking before 3000 Santa Ana College students recently was Adlai Stevenson, the darling of the Democrats. Spartan Democrat Bob Bick and several other SJS Stevensonians probably like Adlai's kind of acidity.

"It is indeed encouraging to see so many busy college students drop by and see an itinerant politician and his traveling circus... If any of you young people have any difficulty in choosing a party to participate in, come and see me." He was at his best.

Stevenson recalled a SAC professor's daughter who wanted to see him "because I've always wanted to see a government." Is reply: "I'm not a government yet—but I am available." He was nearly mobbed by students and admirers as he left the SAC campus.

"SHIP TO SINK HERE SUNDAY"

Louis Untermeyer—noted editor, poet, critic, essayist, anthologist and, apparently, bore—lectured to Santa Barbara College students about literature last week. An "El Gaucho" staffer, columnizing in something called "What The Hell," wasn't impressed:

"How could Untermeyer get himself mixed up with groups labelled communist-front organizations? He is down on Communism because it 'took the bread out of my mouth.' May I compliment the Lecture Committee for its courage in bringing a 'pinkie' to SBC, no matter how poor a lecturer he may be."

PERRIN

Spartans may well ask what relevance a person's political convictions has to a lecture on literature. A college newspaper, which is supposed to mirror campus living and thinking, is no place to fence with communist accusations.

"When the sun rose above the peninsula hills on the morning of January 14 and spread its rays generously about the beautiful, sprawling campus of Menlo College, students of that respectfully regarded institution of higher learning noticed that all wasn't well at that beautiful, sprawling campus. Something was amiss!"

"Something, in fact, was missing from the quaint, barn-like gymnasium which adorns the beautiful, sprawling campus at Menlo. That something was something called the Menlo Cannon. Said the Menlo Student Body President: 'I am sure that the cannon is still located somewhere on our beautiful, sprawling campus.'"

San Jose State Tops in Judo

Although it seldom receives the publicity of the more popular sports, judo has been one of San Jose State's most outstanding sports as far as quality is concerned. Under the direction of Coach Yosh Uchida, the Spartan judo teams have become strong enough so that no college is able to put up suitable opposition. San Jose has been forced to schedule judo clubs and enter special amateur meets to find any competition.

One of the reasons for this situation may be the lack of opportunity of high school students to have contact with judo. Ben Campbell, a member of the San Jose State judo team, recently completed an interested survey regarding judo and its place in high school.

Campbell found more than three-fourths of the high school coaches contacted knew nothing about judo, while 81 per cent said their schools never had a judo demonstration. Questionnaires were sent to 284 high schools of which 73 were returned. Coaches were asked these questions: 1. Have you ever had a judo demonstration? 2. Have you ever had contact with judo? 3. Do you think judo would be good in high school? What is the reason for your answer to question three?

Prep Coaches Know Little Judo

From the answers, Campbell was able to determine the amount of judo instruction high school students received. The most interesting figures are concerned with judo's place in high school. More than 54 per cent of the coaches felt teaching judo would be good in high school, while 28.7 per cent had contrary opinions. A fraction over 17 per cent were undecided. The main reason put forth by the coaches for not teaching judo in high school was the lack of qualified instructors. Many thought judo was the same as wrestling.

Most of the research was done by Campbell on his own time and had nothing to do with a school project. Campbell is a first degree black belt and is a sophomore at San Jose State. He first became interested in judo during his stay in Japan with the Army. Campbell, a physical education major, was a member of the San Jose Buddhist Temple's judo team last year. He went to the semi-finals of the National Judo Tourney in Los Angeles before being defeated.

Spartan Nine To Be Tough

If Walt Williams can find some steady pitching, San Jose State could have its best baseball team in the school's history. The Spartan nine is loaded with returning veterans from last year's fine team, including shortstop Bill Rahming, the club's leading hitter with a .378 average; regular outfielders Tuck Halsey, Al Cerutti, Chuck Reynolds and catcher Jerry Clifford.

Big losses will be at third base where Dick Brady is gone and on the mound where the graduation of Reese Dick and Doug Boehner will be felt. However, several junior college transfers have arrived to plug the holes. In the infield Don Hodgins, Shasta, and Ron Skillecorn, Hartnell, have been turning in good performances, while Hal Kolstad, Hartnell, has been impressive on the mound. Kolstad possesses plenty of speed and Williams reports he has more potential than ex-Spartan star John Oldham.

If Kolstad doesn't come through there is Bob Borghesani, the squad's only left hander, who had a 4-0 record last year and saw action in relief. Halsey, who did a fine job in stopping powerful Fresno for six innings in last year's NCAA playoff, is another candidate. The Spartans will get a good chance to show their stuff Saturday when they open the 1956 season against Stanford at Palo Alto.

Cagers Beat SFS; St. Mary's Next Foe

San Jose State's varsity basketball team will ring down the curtain on its 1956 California Basketball Assn. season tomorrow night when it meets St. Mary's in Spartan Gym.

The Spartans warmed up for the crucial encounter with the Gaels by drubbing San Francisco State, 66-51, Friday night in the Gator Gym.

Stanford Blanks SJS Tennis Squad, 9-0

After dropping the season opener to Stanford Friday afternoon, Coach Hugh Mumby's Spartan tennis team will seek its first victory Wednesday by traveling to Berkeley to face California.

The powerful Indians blanked San Jose 9-0, as Joe Norton, in sixth singles, was the only Spartan to threaten his opponent, losing, 6-4, 6-3.

State's freshman netters, coach by Don Anger, dropped their first game of the year also, falling to San Mateo J.C., 6-3.

Varsity results:

SINGLES
Roger Keesing (S) def. Marty Halfhill (SJ), 6-2, 6-1.
Bob Prince (S) def. Cornelius Reese (SJ), 6-0, 6-2.

Cal Whips Gymnasts

California's powerful gymnastics team handed San Jose a whopping, 112½-31½, defeat Saturday afternoon in Spartan Gym. It was the first defeat of the season for the Spartans.

Dave Seed and Bob Aldritt, who scored points for the Bears in last year's NCAA finals, were the big guns for the winner with 22 and 24 points respectively. Ron Phillips sparked the Spartans with 17 digits.

Sparta Seeks Revenge In Mustang Encounter

Getting no chance to rest on their laurels after overwhelming Nevada, San Jose State boxers take on the rough Cal Poly Mustangs tonight at 8 o'clock in the Spartan gym.

The Mustangs enter the ring with an earlier 4½-3½ decision over Coach Julie Menendez' boxers registered at San Luis Obispo. San Jose comes into the meet with its home win streak increased to 53 matches without a loss, by virtue of the 8-1 rout of Nevada Friday night.

Nevada opened the meet with its only win of the night as Sam Macias, 119 pounds, punched out a close decision over Spartan Al Accurso. Bob Tafoya, 125, evened things up for SJS in a hurry by his TKO victory over Don Kitt. After that, San Jose pretty well had its own way over the outmanned Wolfpack.

Biggest surprise of the meet was the victory of unheralded Stu Rubine, 149, of San Jose over Ted Conti, athlete of the year, from Nevada. Rubine, making his first start of the season for the varsity, landed the harder blows and got the nod of the officials.

Jack "Kayo" Coolidge, 178, also appearing for the first time this season, lived up to his billing by scoring a TKO over Jim Wittenberg in the second round.

Welvin Stroud, 139, pulled one of the most exciting victories for San Jose. He boxed tough Keith Ernst even in the first round and then came on strong to win going away.

Jim Davis, 156, also rated high on the Spartan come-through list, as he rallied in the second round, setting up opponent Mike Marsi for a TKO in the next round.

Max Voshall, 165, was in usual form, as his superior boxing and lethal punching dominated over Nevada Larry Damon.

Spartan Al Julian, 132, pounded out a clear-cut victory over Dick Short, and heavyweight Mel Ratkovich concluded the meet scoring by outpointing Bob Genascl of the Wolfpack.

Coach Menendez' boxers go into tonight's match with Cal Poly, planning to avenge their only loss of the season. San Jose should be noticeably strengthened as Davis will be in good shape for this meet, after missing the first encounter between the two clubs. Jack Nelson, who formerly fought as a heavyweight, will be the SJS 178-pound contender, and will aid Spartan chances.

Pairings for tonight's meet:

125—Al Accurso vs. Eduardo Labastida
132—Al Julian vs. Lambert Lelevar
139—Welvin Stroud vs. Pete Godinez
147—Stu Rubine vs. Frank Leduca
156—Jim Davis vs. Charles Gow
165—Max Voshall vs. Rudy Brooks
178—Jack Nelson vs. Jack Shaw
Hvy.—Mel Ratkovich vs. Vic Buccola

"All students, regardless of their major, are invited to contribute their literary works to 'Reed,'" Miss Sneskin emphasized. Any type of original work will be considered for publication in the magazine. Articles on the fine arts, book reviews, poetry, essays or short stories desirable, Miss Sneskin said.

Material must be handed in to the English Department Office, or given to a "Reed" staff member.

Editor of the magazine is Jim Leigh. Staff members include Julia Bolton, Robert Murphy, Dan McGinnity, John Rylander, Edith Alcock, Robert B. Williams, Alexandra Christiansen, and Renee Sneskin. "Reed" adviser, is Robert H. Woodward.

The magazine, issued annually, will go on sale late this spring.

Second Showing Of Film Series Slated Thursday

The second in a series of educational and instructional films, sponsored by the ROTC instructors' group, will be shown in Morris Dailey Auditorium at 3:30 p.m. Thursday, March 1, it was announced today by Maj. Dean M. Bressler.

Tentatively scheduled for the program are "Productivity—Key to Plenty" and "Evaluating a Nation." The film showings are open to all students and faculty members, admission free.

The first film, "Productivity," gives an analysis of U.S. products and their consumption cycle, the growth of industrial and agricultural productivity, average per capita income of American workers, and illustrates how increased production brings increased buying power and extra leisure for workers.

"Evaluating a Nation" gives an evaluation of nations in terms of national and global power, the standards of national measurement, the MacKinder concept of the World Island, the Nazi doctrine of geopolitics, and the modern polar conception of geography.

First showings of the new series were held last Thursday. On the program were "Communism," a study of the world-wide menace to freedom, and "Preparedness and National Security," an explanation of the measures the U.S. is taking to avoid enemy conflict.

Sophs Make Plans

Odd Teaching Job Offered by College Placement Office

Do you have a special talent for leather work and shoe repair? Are you qualified to teach? Mrs. Doris K. Edgar, director of student teaching, received a letter recently from B. Gordon Funk, Los Angeles city schools, asking for a person with a teaching credential and a background in leather-work.

The teacher also should have knowledge of shoe repair. Interested persons may contact Mrs. Edgar in the Placement Office.

Other teaching positions offered are at Menlo College, which has expressed a need for single, male teachers. Information concerning these positions may be obtained in the Placement Office.

Two schools tentatively are scheduled for interviews on campus in April.

A representative from Whittier will be on campus April 10, and a Pomona representative, April 12.

Riverside city schools have various positions open to qualified teachers and applications may be obtained in the Placement Office.

SJS Rates High In College Contest

John Morrison was awarded third prize as moderator, Hugh Roberts was awarded a prize for being the third best speaker and San Jose State was adjudged fourth as a school team at a Town Meeting Tournament in Portland, Ore., last week.

"What Can Be Done To Improve Our Public Schools?" was the topic of the tournament at which 16 Pacific Northwest Colleges were represented. Panels composed of three members and a moderator discussed this subject at service clubs, high schools, colleges and over the radio.

The students were judged by the audiences that listened to them and prizes were awarded on this basis.

Other awards went to Edith Alcock, second best female speaker and Claudette Riser, fourth best female speaker.

Deadline Change For Phelan Contest

Deadline for the James D. Phelan contest has been moved to March 21, Patty Gerblich, English Department secretary, announced yesterday. Easter vacation interferes with the old deadline of March 26.

The contest is restricted to persons who are regular students at SJS, and have been for at least one semester.

There are three poetry divisions in the contest: sonnet, lyric, free verse. The other division is essay. Short stories, stage plays, and radio and television plays may be submitted under the essay division.

Prizes depend on the number of winners. According to Mrs. Gerblich the usual first prize is $30. Four prizes are normally awarded under each division, except for plays and essays.

Further information concerning the contest and a written copy of the rules may be obtained from the English Department Office, H26.

Attorney General Pledges Support

LOS ANGELES (UP) — State Attorney General Edmund G. Brown pledged complete support to the legislative measure to establish a State Department of Water Resources, encompassing all the water activities of California.

Brown made the pledge in a speech to the statewide water conference being held here under the auspices of the State Chamber of Commerce.

The Attorney General said the time has been reached for getting on with the estimated $3 billion, 10-year program.

Methodist Group Goes on Retreat

Wesley Foundation, a Methodist organization for college students, held a planning retreat in Pacific Grove over the weekend, according to Garry Butler, publicity chairman.

About 20 members attended. The foundation's Snack Supper and other regular Sunday evening activities were held.

The organization is directed by the Rev. Mr. Richard Ingraham.

New Organization Given Recognition

A club for students interested in science teaching has been given campus recognition by the Student Council, according to Marguerite Shea, publicity chairman for the new organization.

The new club is called the San Jose Affiliate Group of the National Science Teachers Assn.

Purpose of the club is to stimulate interest in science as a teaching profession and to promote activities of interest and value to future teachers, Miss Shea said.

Membership in the college group means automatic membership in the National Science Teachers Association and entitles members to national voting privileges and a subscription to the national publication, according to Miss Shea.

Officers who will guide the activities of the newly formed club are, Frank W. Cole, president; James Armstrong, vice president and program chairman; and Mervin Giuntoli, secretary.

Students interested in enrolling in the group or obtaining additional information should inquire at Room S100 or Room 18.
